

NAME: Lyndsay Mason

TITLE: Executive Education Co-ordinator

PRACTICE AREA: Education and Office Management

EDUCATION: H. Dip. Psychology, BA Sports Management (UCD), currently studying H. Dip. Employment Law in UCD

PROFILE: Lyndsay joined our team in January 2011 following the completion of a Higher Diploma in Psychology. Having developed a keen interest in employment ethics and organisational conflict, Lyndsay is now gaining an in-depth knowledge of employment law through her studies - Higher Diploma in Employment Law in UCD.

As part of her role as Executive Education Coordinator Lyndsay manages the production of specifically tailored training programmes including psychometric testing, case studies, icebreakers and any additional material required for client focused education programmes. Lyndsay further supports the team by assisting with the administration associated with workplace investigations, general business organisation and managing the day-to-day requirements of the office. Lyndsay is a dedicated and hard working member of the team and her unconditional support is imperative to our organisation. Previously, Lyndsay worked in services and sports industries, which included managing the co-ordination and budgets for key events including All Ireland Finals and the Rose of Tralee.
